

Ladies,

If you are wanting to connect on a deeper level with each other, Sabra Hall is making plans to begin a ladies book/Bible study based on Lineage of Grace by Francine Rivers. We will cover 5 stories of unlikely women who changed eternity: Tamar, Rahab, Ruth, Bathsheba and Mary. The themes are surrounding hope, faith, love, unlimited grace and obedience. There will be some reading that will be required during the week in preparation for our discussions on Wednesday nights but no written homework. However, if you are one to journal, you will have plenty to write about in your personal reflection time. If you are interested please RSVP to Sabra by Jan. 12. Her contact information is below. The class will begin on January 15th at 7:00. (Place is TBA)

To RSVP please text or email your name and phone number to Sabra Hall
