SHEPHERD TALK

Shout to the Lord

Shout to the Lord all the earth let us sing, power and majesty praise to the King! Mountains bow down and the seas will roar at the sound of Your Name! A great song of praise!

You know what is even better is God allows us to shout praise to him as well as shout questions at Him. God hears it all, the praise, the worry, the frustration, the joy, the everything! He knows we have questions, He knows we get sad, He knows we get angry at Him. We do the same to our earthly father, why wouldn't we have the same emotion to our Heavenly Father.

I have heard people talk about being in times where things weren't going their way and they said they were having a conversation with God. They always qualify it with 'I was talking out loud, like I was just having a conversation with Him', and they talk like that is crazy.... THAT'S WHAT HE WANTS!!! There are very few times that are more refreshing than being somewhere alone and just talking out loud to God. If you really want to up your game, kneel or lay prostrate and have that conversation.

We have a tendency to get very formal with The's and Thou's in prayer. I know Jesus gave us that example in Matt 6:9-11 and Luke 11:1-4. That was the language of the day. I don't feel like prayer should be a comedy routine, but we don't have to be overly formal either. Just talk to him! I've been guilty of trying to say the exact right words. We have men in our church that pray so personally and beautifully. We have many women in our church that do it even better! I think the way we've grown up with men leading formal prayers most of the time and women just praying has given the ladies the advantage.

If we've ever been in those moments of agony, let Jesus have it! He's a big boy! In those moments of joy and triumph, shout out from the rooftops!! He already knows the conversation and the outcome. That's when we know it's under control.

Whatever the situation, just a little talk with Jesus makes it right!
