Thank You Dear Church Family, I wanted to say a huge thank you for the years of abundant love and support. I am beyond blessed to have grown up with such a loving church family to rely on and grow closer to, and I wouldn't be who I am today without all of the positive influences and experiences this church has provided me with. Thank you for treating me like one of your own through the hugs, prayers, and looking at my mom's Facebook posts.
Love, Abby Kennedy

ShepherdTalk

Dear Friends,

I want to share a story about a friend named Mark from New Orleans. Many years ago, a college friend of his who became a heart surgeon brought him a specific surgical clamp. The surgeon explained that while the tool was functional, it didn't fit his hand well, was difficult to maneuver in tight areas, and risked damaging arteries if not handled with extreme care. He asked Mark to rework the instrument.

Mark accepted the challenge and modified the clamp to the surgeon's specifications. After testing the reworked tool, the surgeon found it worked perfectly and even suggested they seek a patent for the improved design.

This reminds me of Acts 9:15. When Jesus appeared to Ananias and instructed him to find Paul, Ananias was hesitant because of Paul's history of persecuting Christians. However, Jesus replied, "Go! This man is my chosen instrument to take my name to the Gentiles, kings, and Israelites."

Like that surgical clamp, Paul was a devoted follower of God but required a "rework" in his heart and life to become a perfect instrument in the hands of the Master Surgeon, Jesus.

We should remember that God is constantly working in us as well, shaping us to become more like our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ - the author and finisher of our faith. I encourage you to let God work His will in your life today.

God bless you all,

Robert Johnson
