Shepherding Words

In Acts 4:36, the apostles changed a man's name from Joseph the Levite to Barnabas, which translates to "Son of Encouragement" or "Son of Consolation." He later became a close missionary companion to Paul.

I often wonder how many times Barnabas must have encouraged Paul to persevere after he was stoned or imprisoned. The Apostles surely recognized the gift of encouragement the Lord had given Barnabas, and his name change served as a constant reminder to use that gift for the Lord's work.

In our current age, we need many "Barnabases" in the spiritual battle against evil. As mortals, we inevitably grow tired and weary. In those moments, we need someone to come alongside us to offer consolation and remind us that Jesus Christ has already won the war. We are children of the King of Kings, and no power is greater than our Master.

If you see a brother or sister in Christ struggling, please come alongside them and be a Barnabas. Encourage them, lift them up in prayer, and remind them that they are a child of God.

Yours in Christ,

Robert Johnson
