Intern Insights - Landon Brajnik

In Matthew 22 a lawyer poses Jesus this question, "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?" Did he ask this sincerely, wanting Jesus to weigh in on a debated issue, or was he testing Jesus? I believe the latter.

In Luke 10 a different lawyer's question to Jesus is not, "what is the greatest commandment?" but, "what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" Isn't that what we all want to know? What must we do to have life!? Jesus asks the second man, "what does the Law say?" And the lawyer knows the answer! And he answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." (Lk 10:27)

Israel knew Dt 6:5 and Lv 19:18. Certainly at many points in Israel's history their relationship to God's Law was nothing more than ritualistic obedience, devoid of love for God or His commandments, but it was not because they did not know the Greatest Commandment. The lawyer knew the commandment, but the parable of the Good Samaritan proved he did not understand it. Jesus tells Israel why their knowledge is not enough.

"You search the scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me, yet you refuse to come to me that you may have life." (Jn 5:39-40)

The Law, even the Greatest Commandment, will not bring us life apart from Christ. Like Israel we still must know and love God's Law, however let us not follow their example. We must come to Jesus, letting him teach us but trusting in his righteousness, that we may have life.
