YOUTH ARTICLE

Although I have been eager for some time to graduate high school and be an "adult", now that the time has come, I am reflecting. Senior Sunday has been a fun event for the seniors to be recognized for "finishing their walk" in the youth group, and for the church to show them support. I remember being a little kid in the pew so excited to see the embarrassing baby photos of the seniors, and celebrate those I had looked up to for so long. While I am proud to be the one standing on the stage today, I am also saddened my time here is over. The hardest part of Senior Sunday for me to grasp is why those high schoolers left and haven't come back more often. The reality of our youth group is, as one class leaves, the next becomes the role models. I have enjoyed this role in the youth group and know it is not quite over yet. I have used the song The Commission by CAIN to comfort me during this time of change. The song is written from Jesus' perspective telling all his children that, "I've gotta go now for a little while, but goodbye is not the end". This song has comforted me so much because not only does it assure me that I will soon be able to meet my Heavenly Father, but it also reminds me I will always be a part of this amazing group of people at Springtown Church of Christ. As I close, I want to speak directly to the younger kids in the youth group. I would like to urge you to take time to enjoy the little moments of our amazing youth group. Enjoy the nasty CICI's, and weird Lance jokes, and the "fun" Ashley games. I say this because one day you will be in my shoes, remembering all the fun you had. Be silly, go out of your comfort zone, but mainly, invest. The older generation of this church is doing the same thing for you, and now it is your turn to do the same for the younger generations. Next, Class of 2022, do not forget what you have meant to me or this church. Let's understand we are all welcomed back with open arms and the utmost support from our church family, let's not be strangers ;). And lastly, I would like to thank this church for being a home that I will be forever proud to come back to. Keep loving one another the way y'all do and supporting the coming generations because at the end of the day, YOU are the ultimate role models. So just because "I've gotta go now for a little while", "goodbye is not the end". -Erin Bailey Hall
